

All Eyes are on IRAs- over $5 Trillion Dollars and Growing! Self-directed IRA Upcoming Conference Educates Professionals on Latest Rules & Updates in DC on March 20-21

Now's the time for IRA custodians, administrators and financial professionals to learn about the latest regulatory and legislative issues affecting self-directed IRAs at the upcoming conference hosted by the Retirement Industry Trust Association (RITA) to be held in Washington DC, March 20-21, 2013.

Sarasota, FL (PRWEB) March 02, 2013

IRAs- the biggest slice of the retirement pie -are rapidly growing especially in the self-directed retirement niche. Now's the time for IRA custodians, administrators and financial professionals to learn about the latest regulatory and legislative issues affecting self-directed IRAs at the upcoming conference hosted by the Retirement Industry Trust Association (RITA) to be held in Washington DC, March 20-21, 2013

As investors discover new ways to diversify their retirement into real estate, gold, startups and a wide range of alternative assets outside of the stock market, they turn to their financial advisers, banks and/or administrators to understand the rules.

- IRA Investors want more Choices and Control
- Custodians and Administrators want more Investors
- Regulators want everyone to know the rules and follow them

Attendees will meet top experts and hear directly from the most influential people in the industry including Phyllis Borzi, Assistant Secretary of Labor.

"RITA conferences offer the unique opportunity to network with industry peers and deliver information on emerging issues, trends and regulations critical to the success of your organization."
